For circulation among the members of the Governing Council, State Secretaries, Special Invitees, Advisors, Affiliates, Constituents of CBPRO and Members.

Dear Comrades,

Sub: All India UCO Bank Pensioners' Federation, our affiliate, organized their 5th Triennial General Body Conference on 11th & 12th April, 2026 at Bodhgaya, the place of peace and enlightenment in the midst of participative involvement and enthusiasm.

Different glimpses of the conference – (i) a section of the audience (ii) a view of the dais (iii) the GS, AIUCBPF speaks and (iv) GS, AIBPARC speaks.

1. We have much pleasure to convey that our affiliate at UCO Bank organized their 5th Triennial General Body Conference at Bodhgaya on 11th & 12th April, 26 at Hotel Anand International. More than 200 Delegates and Observers attended the conference. The Hall was named after Com. Amit Mitra, a dedicated person for the movement of the employees, the officers and the pensioners. Several retired General Managers of the Bank attend the conference.

2. Welcome address was delivered by Com.A.K.Verma, President UCBPA, Bihar unit. He observed that Lord Buddha attained enlightenment at this particular place and his journey was not only for discovering the truth but also to learn discipline, perseverance and deep reflection. Shri Autul Sinha, the former General Manager of the Bank principally focused on cyber frauds and the ways and means to have protection from it. He praised the organization for achieving different welfare measures for the retirees in recent times. Com.Suprita Sarkar, GS, AIBPARC apprised the house about the latest position of various court cases and also the issues with which the community of the Retirees are today confronted with. He denounced the negative role of IBA in regard to the issues of the senior citizens and called upon GOI to come forward without any loss of time to allow updation of pension and resolve other issues. Com.Rampal, President of the organization thanked the Comrades of the Bihar unit for taking up the challenge of holding the conference at Bodhgaya and perform it with commendable success. He demanded representation in the pension trust, introduction of the check of system of the Bank Retirees and called upon the members to respond to the calls of agitation given by AIBPARC/CBPRO. Com.Subrata Sarkar, GS of the organization placed a total overview of the organization in the entire country – the areas of its strength and weakness. He praised the mood of festivity with which the elder citizens have been attending the conference. He pledged that at the call of CBPRO/AIBPARC, the organization at UCO Bank will never lag behind. Shri Seetharaman, Former General Manager of the Bank observed that the utility of an organization was measured by the members at the yardsticks of welfare schemes and he also mentioned the latest status of the M.C.Singla case before the SC. Shri M.K.Anand, Former General Manager of the Bank offered vote of thanks.

3. The 2nd day of the conference, 12th April, 26, was the day of the Business Session. The General Secretary submitted his written report for the consideration of the house along with the Resolutions and proposals for amendment to the Bye Laws. The Treasurer submitted the financial accounts for last three years. The members deliberated on different issues and finally with the reply offered by the General Secretary, all the papers submitted before the house were passed unanimously. The Business Session was orderly and well managed.

4. The elections were conducted in a hassle free manner. All the office bearers were elected unanimously. Com.Rampal and Com.Subrata Sarkar were elected as The President and the General Secretary respectively. We congratulate all the newly elected office bearers and do hope that the holding of the conference will further strengthen the movement of the Retirees in this part of the country.

With best wishes and regards,

Comradely yours,

K.V.Acharya.
